

NANCY HESEMAN

WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK & RECORDER

101 E. ST. LOUIS STREET

NASHVILLE, IL 62263

(618) 327-4800 EXT. 300

NOTICE FOR THE ELDERLY & HANDICAPPED VOTERS

At your polling place, you may request help from your Election Judges. If you require help from the Election Judge, one from each party will assist you. If you are unable to go inside the polling place, the County Clerk's Office has a form that must be filled out no later than the day before the election. The judges (one from each party), will then come to your car and assist you in voting.

You may also vote early in the County Clerk's Office or through the mail. You can contact the County Clerk's Office if you wish to vote by mail and an application will be mailed to you. Please contact the County Clerk's Office for additional information or questions at (618)327-4800, ext. 300.

Due to COVID-19, all 2020 General Election voters are encouraged to cast a ballot prior to Election Day, either by mail or during early voting. Voting by mail is an easy option for voters and you can request a vote by mail ballot through email, mail, or in person. An application is available from your local election authority or at <https://elections.il.gov/electionoperations/VotingByMail.aspx>. To register to vote or check your registration status, visit <https://ova.elections.il.gov>.
